

DYKE BREAKS FLOODING
ALL OF EAST ST. LOUIS.

At Least Thirty People Are Drowned
While Many Thousands Are Rendered Homeless Today.

Break in Illinois Central Dyke Early
This Morning.

Property Losses Can Not be Estimated--Many Lost
All Their Personal Effects--Two Negroes
Shot Dead on the Levee--Appeal to St. Louis For Help.

ST. LOUIS, MO., June 10—(Bulletin)—East St. Louis is buried in the flood this morning and 10,000 people are homeless. The Illinois Central Dyke burst shortly after midnight and the devastation is complete. Many citizens are not only homeless but have lost all their earthly possessions. East St. Louis is in dire need and asks St. Louis for help. The entire city of East St. Louis is doomed. Before night every portion of it will be under water. Thirty thousand people will be rendered all but helpless. Nearly all of them will be homeless. Militia arrived today to help preserve order.

St. Louis, June 10—Today the water in East St. Louis stands from three to thirty feet deep over all the eastern half of the city. Houses are weakening and falling. The destruction seems complete. The flood came down upon the city from the southeast this being a great sea of breakwater which has been piled up against the city. At 8 o'clock this morning, the flood had swept clear through the city to the river and the city lies under an unbroken stretch of rising, swirling torrents. At 9 o'clock the flood was cutting its way under East Broadway and threatening the northern half of the city. It is conservatively estimated that thirty persons were drowned during the night. Other estimates are as high as 100.

One thousand men who were working on the dyke at the time of the break narrowly escaped. Many were caught in the flood shoulder deep. Many swam to safety. It is feared that several were lost. The dyke had been considered safe and all labor had been concentrated on the western and northern dykes. Shortly after midnight the water cut a small passage through the embankment. Within two minutes this break had spread to a distance of forty feet, with a torrent crashing through. The workers saw that there was no hope and the sand trains backed down into the city their whistles blowing shrill blasts of warning. The guards who had patrolled the dyke fired their riot guns in all directions and ran down through the streets shouting their warning to the sleeping citizens. The workers fled for their lives. The men and children who had been at work on the dykes for six hours filling the sacks with which the embankment was being strengthened ran in panic.

Chief of Police Purdy of East St. Louis at 5 o'clock this morning sent an urgent appeal to the St. Louis authorities. Chief Purdy said 10,000 lives were in peril. Boats, skiffs or anything that will float are urgently asked. Steps were immediately taken to render all the aid in the power of St. Louisians.

Two negroes were shot and killed on the levee before the break last night. Ned Roberts, who had worked on the dyke several days, demanded his pay and threatened to break the dyke unless paid at once. Instantly seven fired on him and the negro fell dead. Elijah Anderson, another negro on the Illinois Central levee refused to work and was killed by the guard. Theodore Day, colored, while trying to rescue some people was drowned, as was the horse he was riding. The bodies of John Koolish and his three children were recovered this morning. They were drowned last night while trying to escape in a skiff from their deluged home. Mrs. Koolish escaped.

The terror of the city was increased this morning when the flood from the north began pouring down through a niece Mabel and nephew Orville, and then "Baby Kropp." Brooks contracted black smallpox from an Ashtabula barber, who has since died. The work of disinfecting continues all over Vermillion. Not a move is made which is not followed by a spraying of formaldehyde or burning of a disinfector.

KAISER'S MEANING.
Berlin, June 10—The recent remark by Kaiser Wilhelm, showing his admiration for America and Americans, is creating no end of gossip in court circles. The Kaiser's observation was "I can only use Americans in governing Germany." It is interpreted to mean that the Kaiser wants the Germans imbued with the spirit of Americanism. It is now understood that the Kaiser will nominate to responsible positions in the army and public life only those who have shown American energy and smartness.

Bellefontaine, O., June 10—Mrs. W. H. C. Goode, wife of the millionaire manufacturer of Sidney, was struck by lightning while talking through a telephone. She was knocked down, and for some time was unconscious.

DISPATCH

Headed by Congressman Gill and Editor Harry E. Alexander of the Zanesville Signal.

Columbus, O., June 10—Deep interest is manifested by Republican politicians in the announcement that Congressman Joseph J. Gill, of Steubenville, has obtained control of the Columbus Dispatch, the oldest evening newspaper of the city, of which W. D. Brickell has been the owner and publisher for nearly a quarter of a century. The announcement came as a surprise to the political and journalistic worlds, the information reaching the interests named through the medium of the following brief editorial statement: "William D. Brickell has sold the Dispatch newspaper to the Dispatch Printing company, a corporation organized under the laws of Ohio, with a capital stock of $300,000. Joseph J. Gill of Steubenville owns a controlling interest in the company and Mr. Brickell, to whom all credit is due for the Dispatch's growth, prosperity and power, continues with the new corporation and directs its affairs as general manager."

The incorporators of the company are, besides Mr. Gill, Harry E. Alexander of Zanesville, editor of the Signal, of that city; Charles O. Simeral and John H. Peterson, Mr. Gill's secretaries and Charles H. Jones of Zanesville. In the organization Mr. Simeral drops out, giving way to Mr. Brickell as a director. Mr. Gill will be president, Mr. Brickell vice president and general manager, and H. E. Alexander secretary and treasurer. Mr. Alexander is a well known newspaper man and under the last term of President Cleveland was immigrant inspector in Cincinnati. Since that time, with his brother, he has been running the Signal at Zanesville. He will come to this city shortly to assume the duties of his office.

Ahead of Schedule Time to Attend Hanna Wedding.

Cleveland, June 10—Pres. Roosevelt and daughter arrived this morning a half hour ahead of schedule, thus missing the crowd at the depot. They were immediately driven to the Hanna home. As the carriage approached the door a voice sang out: "Hello, Uncle Mark." It was President Roosevelt, and Hanna rushed down bareheaded, greeted the President and Miss Alice, and took them personally in charge. The wedding day for Miss Ruth Hanna opened clear and cool, and promises to remain auspicious.

WIFE CRUEL
Says Curtis McBride, a Prominent
Mansfield Man, Who Wants a Divorce.

Mansfield, O., June 10—A divorce suit in which wealthy Park avenue, West, people are plaintiff and defendant has just come to light. Curtis E. McBride, who has been for a number of years one of the State Law Examiners for admission to the bar and Richland county's representative in the legislature for two terms, has brought suit for legal separation on the ground that his wife has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward him. He alleges that she has abused his children and has been extravagant.

The filing of the petition was kept secret and no record made of it upon the books at the Probate Court. Sheriff Payne, it has been learned, served the papers upon Mrs. McBride, at a local drug store a few evenings ago. She has been out of the city, and had just returned when the sheriff served the notice on her. When Mr. McBride was united in marriage with Mrs. Werick, divorced wife of a ball player, January 20, 1902 it created considerable surprise, at the news of application for divorce came as a still greater surprise to Mansfield people.

Mr. McBride has two very charming young daughters and Mrs. McBride a son by her former marriage. These have been living at the McBride home. It is claimed that the relations between the young ladies and their step-mother have not been entirely harmonious for some time.

Hanna Wedding Was a
Swell Affair

CEREMONY TAKES PLACE TODAY
AT NOON.

A FAT CHECK FROM MR HANNA

Was Among the Many Presents Received by the Bride—Many Distinguished Guests.

Cleveland, O., June 10—The marriage of Miss Ruth Hanna and Joseph Medill McCormick was celebrated at noon today in St. Paul's Episcopal church. It was the most brilliant affair the city has ever seen.

MISS RUTH HANNA.

Graced by the presence of President Roosevelt and a score of Senators and other statesmen, accompanied by richly dressed women, it was a great pageant.

The bride came in on the arm of her father. President Roosevelt escorted Mrs. Hanna. Bishop Leonard said the final words which made the bridal pair one.

The bride wore a dress of beau de soie, with orange blossoms in her hair, a short veil, and her only jeweled ornament was a diamond solitaire on her gloveless hand. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at Glen Mere, the Hanna home. The table for the bride's party was set in the dining room, while the other guests were served on the lawn.

Late in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. McCormick left for Monticella, Ill., where they will spend their honeymoon.

Senator Hanna's gift to the bride was a fat check for the purchase of a home in Chicago. Mrs. Hanna gave the bride a splendid string of pearls.

Young Mr. McCormick, the groom, is assistant publisher of the Chicago Tribune.

Secretary Loeb said that President Roosevelt would not take up a single matter of state or politics while here. "It is a purely social visit," he said.

The President and daughter will remain at Glenmere till 11 p. m. when they will depart for Washington.

THE BRIDEGROOM.

Chicago, June 10—J. Medill McCormick who married Senator Hanna's daughter today is the son of United States Ambassador to Russia, R. S. McCormick and grandson of the late Joseph Medill, founder of the Chicago Tribune. Mr. McCormick is 26 years old and was educated at Harvard. After graduating he joined the Tribune staff. He was for a time Washington correspondent and when General Corbin went to the Philippines on a tour of investigation, Mr. McCormick accompanied him by special request. Soon after his return to the U. S. McCormick was assigned to write editorials for the Tribune and was recently appointed assistant publisher of the paper.

CHAMBERLAIN
May Retire from the Cabinet—The Resignation of the Secretary is Rumored.

London, June 10—The rumored resignation of Colonial Secretary Chamberlain is the most startling development of the proposal of the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Ritchie, to abolish the corn tax, the debate on which kept the House of Commons today packed and spellbound until midnight. Even if Premier Balfour persuades Mr. Chamberlain to remain in the cabinet the colonial secretary's preferential tariff program is hopelessly snowed under, and his influence as a political power in Great Britain at least temporarily eclipsed.

STOCKS FELL

New York, June 10—There is no let up in the demoralization of the stock market today. Values fell away, and stocks are lower today than at any time in five years. Cause is found in the poor crop condition, floods, forest fires and unfavorable weather.

STORM
Of Tuesday Afternoon Was Severe in Muskingum County—Several Trees Blown Down.

Zanesville, O., June 10—Muskingum county was visited by a severe rain and electrical storm yesterday afternoon, which was worst at Trinway, Dresden, Frazeysburg and Coshocton.

Several trees were blown down and lightning is reported to have struck many buildings, though no loss of life has been reported.

For fifteen minutes here in Zanesville the wind drove a mountain of dust through the streets and was so fierce and dense that traffic was stopped on the streets where the storm was worst.

A summer street car, with curtains drawn tightly, was held on the Y bridge for seven minutes during the storm, the density of the dust and the ferocity of the wind making it impossible for the motorman to retain his position on the front platform or to attempt to risk guiding the car up Main street, where all was confusion.

SPIDER

Was Mixed in the Bread Dough and Caused the Death of Two Persons.

Gainesville, Ga., June 10—Miss Mary Stevens and her little nephew, James Smith are dead and three other persons are seriously ill as a result of eating bread in which a large spider had been kneaded. The bread was eaten yesterday at breakfast and soon after all who had partaken of it were taken violently ill. Efforts to relieve Miss Stevens and her nephew were vain, and they soon died in great agony.

The physicians gave it as their opinion that the deaths were due to poison. The bread was examined, and particles of a huge spider were found scattered through it. The cook confessed that while she was kneading the dough the spider was worked in it by accident. The dough stood over night, and the physicians say that the delay in cooking resulted in the dough becoming thoroughly impregnated with the spider's venom.

KISSED HER

Then Bending Over the Bed, Moore
Fatally Wounded Woman With Razor Today.

Cincinnati, June 10—Kissing the lips of Mary Turner, 28, Samuel Moore, 29, colored, her common law husband, early today at their home, bent over her in bed and holding her down with one hand tried to sever her head with a razor. Moore failed to cut off the woman's head but he gashed her throat from ear to ear, making fatal wounds. Moore said after his arrest that he was driven on by some unknown force to murder the woman.

TRIAL
Of Jett and White
Is On

Ewen Was First Witness
Today

STOOD BY MARCUM WHEN THE SHOT WAS FIRED.

SOME EXCITEMENT CREATED

By Report That Town May be Placed
Under Martial Law—The Jail
Guard is Increased.

Jackson, Ky., June 10—The jury which will decide the fate of Curtis Jett and Tom White, charged with the assassination of James B. Marcum on May 4, was completed Tuesday evening. They are all farmers from Magoffin and adjoining county.

Judge Redwine convened court at 8 o'clock this morning. The prisoners were brought in by soldiers and delivered to the elisor. The mother of Jett was in court and greeted her son. Sheriff Ed Callahan was in court and shook hands cordially with the two alleged murderers, whispering to White several times. White is believed to be weakening. He spent the night on the lower floor of the jail on orders from Judge Redwine.

The attorneys for the defense moved that the entire jury be set aside on the grounds that there were irregularities in the manner of the drawing, which was done by placing the names of the veniremen in a hat, Judge Redwine taking out one at a time, until 12 were accepted. Judge Redwine granted a recess to allow the attorneys for the defense time to file affidavits supporting the motion.

When court convened and Judge Redwine had finished reading the affidavit supporting the motion of the defense for a continuance he overruled the motion and asked the commonwealth to proceed. The commonwealth called about twenty witnesses and the defense about 25.

Attorney French, for the defense, asked that County Judge James Hargis, who is a witness for the defense, be allowed to remain in the room and assist in the management of the case, but commonwealth's attorney Byrd objected and Judge Hargis was sent from the room.

In opening the case commonwealth's Attorney Byrd said:

"We will show that Curtis Jett entered the court house by the side door, that the shots were heard directly after and that he came out of the same door very unconcernedly immediately afterwards. That he and White were in a conspiracy to murder Marcum, that Jett was seen to have fired the shots and that Jett told people that 'somebody's money paid for it.'"

The first witness called was B. J. Ewan who was standing in the front door of the court house in conversation with Marcum when the first shot was fired, striking Marcum in the back. Ewan said:

"Marcum and I were in conversation. I was looking toward him with my back to the west door jamb. When the shot was fired, I saw dimly through the smoke the form of a man approaching. I ran when Marcum fell, but looked back and saw Curtis Jett approach him with his revolver in both hands. He came up to within about six feet of the man lying on the floor and deliberately shot him in the head. I feared he would also try to shoot me, and I ran further away. After he fired the second shot he stood a second as if to make certain of the deed and then turned. While running away I kept looking in his direction to be certain of his movements, as in event he had tried to shoot me I would have drawn my revolver."

Excitement has been occasioned by the arrival of Colonel Williams, the

BISHOPRIC

CANDIDATES NAMED TUESDAY AT COLUMBUS.

The Rev. B. M. O'Boylan of this City Was Present—Three Names are Sent to Rome.

Columbus, O., June 10—The meeting of irremovable rectors and diocesan counsellors held yesterday afternoon at the residence of the bishop of Columbus to nominate three men for the consideration of Rome in making appointment of Archbishop Moeller's successor, resulted as follows:

First—Rev. M. M. Meara, chancellor of the diocese, on the first ballot.

Second—Rev. James Hartley, of Steubenville.

Third—Rev. Francis W. Howard, assistant pastor at St. Joseph's cathedral.

The meeting was presided over by Archbishop Moeller. Its deliberations began at 3:20 p. m. and lasted one hour. Of the 13 clergymen entitled to sit and vote in the meeting 11 were present, Rev. J. B. Eis, Sacred Heart, Columbus, and Rev. P. H. Style of Delaware, being absent.

Those attending the meeting were: Mgr. Specht, Revs. Clement R. Rhode, D. A. Clarke, N. E. Pilger, M. M. A. Hartney, B. M. O'Boylan, of Newark, J. S. Hannan, and P. M. Heery; consultants, Revs. M. M. Mears, D. A. Clarke, T. J. O'Reilly, N. E. Pilger, D. J. Kennedy and C. R. Rhode.

The three men nominated are men of piety and marked ability. Father Meara, the first choice, is a man of excellent attainments. As a Christian worker he is tireless and resolute and he carries into his duties a deep human interest that wins the love and confidence of those with whom he comes in contact.

"His life has been one of devotion to the church and to humanity, and if it shall happen that Rome views with favor the first choice of the priests who made the nomination, the Catholics of this diocese will have cause for great rejoicing." Thus voiced his sentiments last evening one of the priests who voted for Father Meara's nomination.

Revs. James Hartley of Steubenville is not so well known to the clergy and the people of the diocese as Father Meara, but all who know him are impressed with his talents, zeal and energy. He has a large following of ardent admirers who believe he is destined to attain to high honors in the church.

Rev. Francis W. Howard, the third nominee, is one of the younger priests of the diocese. He is one of the ablest also. Father Howard is deeply learned and is a tireless student. He is regarded as one of the most accomplished as well as one of the most zealous members of the priesthood.

Speaking of the nominations the priest above quoted said: "It is difficult to conceive of wiser selections. We have in this list forwarded to the Sacred college for consideration the names of three men who for integrity, industry and zeal cannot be surpassed anywhere."

Another club woman, Mrs. Hanle, of Edgerton, Wis., tells how she was cured of irregularities and uterine trouble, terrible pains and backache by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"A while ago my health began to fail because of female troubles. The doctor did not help me. I remembered that my mother had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on many occasions for irregularities and uterine troubles, and I felt sure that it could not harm me at any rate to give it a trial.

"I was certainly glad to find that within a week I felt much better, the terrible pains in my back and side were beginning to cease, and at the time of menstruation I did not have nearly as serious a time as heretofore, so I continued its use for two months, and at the end of that time I was like a new woman. I really have never felt better in my life, have not had a sick headache since, and weigh 20 pounds more than I ever did, so I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. MAY HANLE, Edgerton, Wis., President Household Economics Club. —$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Women should remember there is one tried and true remedy for all female ills, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Refuse to buy any other medicine, you need the best.

LIKE TRACY

Shoals, Ind., June 10—The Martin County man hunt, which embodied many of the sensational and dramatic features of the pursuit of Harry Tracey, the Washington outlaw, ended abruptly late yesterday afternoon, when Henry A. Lyons, the youthful desperado, who murdered his step-mother, Mrs. Joel Lyons at the family home two miles north of Killon Thursday, shot himself through the heart.

Lyons was as good as his word. He had said repeatedly that he would never be taken alive. So when he was hard pressed by a posse of Martin county farmers eager for vengeance he placed his 38 calibre revolver to his breast and pulled the trigger. He was on the farm of George Swasee, eight miles north of Shoals, and within 100 yards of the home of his uncle, Tom Goldsberry.

LICKING COUNTY DEMOCRACY.

Licking county, when a full vote is out, is a reliable Democratic county by from 1,000 to 1,500. It has been so for nearly fifty years. The political sentiment of this county, when you get a fair expression of the political sentiment—through all the varying vicissitudes of the Civil war and all the questions that have since arisen of finance, tariff and political administration, has been uniformly Democratic. Today the prevailing political sentiment of this county is as strongly Democratic as it ever was. That is to say, the great majority of the people of the county believe in government of the people, by the people and for the people; they believe in the greatest good for the greatest number; they believe in honest government; they believe in equal rights to all and especial privileges to none; they believe in the greatest liberty consistent with the public welfare; they are opposed to trusts; they are opposed to imperialism; they are opposed to trampling the American flag and the constitution under foot—and this is Democracy.

Yet, you say, the Republican party has occasionally broken into the Court House. We have a Republican today in the Probate Court and in the Commissioners office. True, but why? Not because of any real diminution of Democratic strength in the county; not because of any permanent falling off in the Democratic vote; not because of any change in the Democratic sentiment of this county, but simply because Democrats have seen fit to defeat themselves; because they have engaged in factional and personal quarrels and have turned around and helped defeat the very men they helped to nominate. This is why our party has met with occasional reverses in this county; this is why we occasionally see Republicans in the Court House, who do not represent the political sentiment of the county—who do not express the will of the tax payers.

Another thing right in this connection. Democrats who recollect the political history of the county for the last twenty-five or thirty years, will recollect that the Republican party in this county always obtains these political goods by false pretenses. The Bob Leeding case is yet fresh in the memory of the people. The Republicans raised a hue and cry that there was something wrong in the County Commissioners office—that the Democratic candidate ought to be defeated, and the Republican candidate elected, in order to save the county from ruin. They said too, that if the Republican candidate was elected he would disclose a great mare's nest of political corruption. Democrats were deceived by the false cry. They helped to defeat their own candidate and elect the Republican candidate. He was in the office three years. He had full and free access to all the books, records and papers pertaining to the office. Did he ever show up the political mare's nest that he was elected to show up? Did he disclose the political rotteness that he promised to do? No. Why did he not do so? He surely had the desire to expose Democratic crookedness, if any existed, and thus benefit his own party. The fact that he did not do so, is proof positive that he could not. There was no crookedness to expose, or Mr. Leeding would have delighted to do it. And so it has been on every other occasion when Republican candidates have accidentally broken into the Court House. They have exposed no wrongs; they have instituted no reforms; their election has been a benefit to the people in no respect.

The fact is that the public affairs of Licking county, during its long period of Democratic administration, have been wisely, honestly and economically administered, and that in all these respects Licking county will compare favorably with the best counties in the state.

It is said that when John Hancock affixed his bold signature to the immortal Declaration of Independence he turned around to some of his colleagues and said with a smile, "Friends, we must all hang together in this matter, or we shall all hang separately." So we say to the Democracy of Licking county. We must stop knifing each other; we must bury hatchets; we must all hang together for Democracy and victory, or we shall certainly hang separately.

Now that the alleged Republican state convention is over, many of the delegates are asking themselves, "What were we there for?" The whole ticket had been kindly fixed up by the two bosses, Hanna and Cox, weeks beforehand, and the assemblage of the alleged delegates at Columbus was an unnecessary trouble and expense.

Colonel Gillett is a very nice young man, and he has hosts of friends. But like the nice young man in the Scripture, one thing he lacked and in his case that was the consent of the Boss.

WHEN THE NERVES ARE SHATTERED.

When the nerves are shattered one cannot think, work, eat, sleep or accomplish anything.

It's a case of force all the time—a continued effort to keep going—no life—no energy—no ambition—upset at anything—nervous headaches—crying spells—fits of depression and utter despondency. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills cure this condition to stay cured by rebuilding the shattered nervous system—nourishing the nerve centers and supplying what is lacking—the active principle of life—Nerve Force.

Mrs. L. McFarland of 40 1-2 South Second street, Newark, Ohio, says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are a fine nerve tonic. They make one's nerves strong and steady when shattered, their sleep natural and their strength good where one is weak, nervous and sleepless. The Nerve Pills are just the thing and I shall keep Mr. Bricker, druggist, in mind should I need more." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine company, Buffalo, N. Y. ## A NEW SCANDAL

Washington, June 10—Locally developments in the postoffice scandal are somewhat overshadowed by the discovery of alleged crookedness in another branch of the government service, that of the District of Columbia, which is administered by commissioners appointed by Congress and under the supervision of the General Government.

This new topic for commentators upon official dishonesty was the arrest of James M. Watson, Jr., a clerk in the office of the Auditor of the District of Columbia and the son-in-law of a wealthy retired railroad contractor, on a charge of embezzlement of government funds. The amount is estimated at from $60,000 to $75,000. The warrant makes the specific charge of embezzlement of $8,000, which represents only a portion of the alleged peculations.

An Elaborate Reasoner.
"You are base enough to confess that you love her for her wealth."
"My dear sir," answered Count Fuscades, "that is not baseness. That shows my democratic breadth of ideas combined with consistent respect for tradition."

"You should love her for herself."
"My dear sir, beauty, intellect and refinement are mere accidents of birth, but money is an evidence of ancestral and possibly hereditary foresight and force of character."—Washington Star.

In this strenuous age, one sometimes feels the need, not exactly of a medicine, but of a good common sense revitalizer and tonic. Walther's Peptonized Port is just such a tonic. The port wine is a strengthener in itself, and the pepsin by aiding digestion enables one to get the maximum amount of strength from one's food. It strengthens in a natural way—not by whipping the organs into a forced activity, not by creating a false feeling of strength through nerve stimulation, but by actually giving real strength. ## DAVITT'S STORY OF KISHINEFF MASSACRE

Inside Facts About the Anti-Semite Outrage in Russia.

FEARFUL ATROCITIES COMMITTED

Young Girl Torn in Two by Moldavian Fiends Who Fought For Her Body—The Writer Says Programme of Outrage Was Carefully Laid by Anti-Semite Leaders and Editor Kroushvan—Davitt's Solution of Jewish Problem.

Michael Davitt, who was sent to Russia to ascertain the facts about the massacre of the Jews in Kishineff, has traversed almost the whole territory within the Jewish pale of settlement from Odessa to Warsaw. The following extracts from his account of the atrocities are taken from the New York American:

I found that the origin of the riots at Kishineff was not as was reported by the Russian accounts, which alleged that a Christian woman was struck by the Jew proprietor of a merry-go-round, which provoked the crowds of peasants to the ensuing riots. There is no truth in this story. I found the owner of the merry-go-round. He is a German named Reinhold Merger and is a Christian. He assured me that no woman was insulted or hurt on that occasion. The real cause of the disturbance is this:

The only daily paper in Kishineff is the Bessarabyetz. It is violently anti-Semitic, and the chief editor, Kroushvan by name, is of Moldavian origin, and he has systematically inflamed the popular feeling against the Jews, as the foes of Russia, as the propagandists of socialism and as the enemies of the Christian religion. Kroushvan's attacks have been continuous for the last six years. Merchants and employers giving work to Jews were held up to public odium, and the expulsion or extermination of the race was openly urged.

Two events occurring shortly before Easter were seized upon by Kroushvan to incite the mob to murderous violence. One was the murder of a boy by his relatives for gain. The other was the suicide of a girl at the Jewish hospital of Kishineff. The Bessarabyetz declared them to be both ritual murders by the Jews and summoned the Russian Christians to punish the authors of the alleged crimes.

The chief rabbi of Kishineff, fearing the results of these appeals, hastened to the Greek bishop and implored him to calm the popular mind by giving an episcopal assurance that no such ritual was practiced. The bishop's reply was that he feared there was some Semitic sect which really did indulge in the use of Christian blood in the Paschal ceremonies, and he refused to intervene. About the same time a body of representative Jews visited the governor and warned him that Kroushvan's incitations would lead to murder unless restrained. General von Raaben assured the deputation that precautions would be taken, but no attempt was made to stop the appeals of the Bessarabyetz to the popular anti-Semitic hatred.

Chief of Police Ichanzko was also requested to act in the interest of peace and curb the diatribes of the Bessarabyetz. He replied that it would "serve the Jews right if they were driven from the city for encouraging the propaganda of socialism."

The superstitious populace, seeing the Jewish warnings unheeded, planned an attack for the Easter holidays. Kishineff Jews declare that Editor Kroushvan received a message from St. Petersburg on the eve of the outbreak to plan the riots. A meeting was held and a plan of attack decided on. A few days previously a band of strangers arrived at Kishineff, comprising thirty Albanians and some Macedonians. They are believed to be brigands brought especially for an attack on the Jews.

The chief instigators of the riots were Kroushvan and his deputy editor Theo Scherban; Dr. Sinadino, who is of Greek origin; Dr. Gozylo, the Moldavian Engineer Balinski, who is secretary of the sanitary bureau; Noton Pizarzsky, Adam Boinsky, two sons of a prominent merchant named Sverov, two students, Malae and Oubranovitz; two Odessa students named Kroupansky and Captains Neclevitz and Birman. The actual leaders of the riots were students and seminarists from the Royal school and the city religious colleges.

All the statements made to me agree that the seminarists directed the movements of the mob on both days, disguised as laborers and strangers. The rioters comprised thirty bands, averaging fifty each, with a seminarist on a bicycle directing the attack. Some of the bands were composed of the lower employees of the various departments of the municipality, but artisans, laborers and Moldavians from the suburbs formed the greater body of the rioters, with the Albanian strangers above mentioned. These bands, with sticks and stones, but no firearms, attacked the Jewish quarters at thirty different points simultaneously, thus proving a deliberate plan of operation.

All the evidence that I have gathered during eight days of searching inquiry in Kishineff convinces me that the outbreak was not a casual or accidental uprising of a mob against the Jews, but was a carefully planned attack by the local anti-Semitic leaders, with the passive connivance of Chief of Police Ichanzko and the active encouragement of some of his officers. Von Raaben's deplorable weakness in not employing his military force to quell the riots during the first day is responsible for the horrors of that night and the massacres and the violations of women and girls on the second day.

It is impossible in the space of this telegram—which is the first possible to send after my thorough investigation owing to Russian censorship—to give all the facts and details in my possession. Here are a few instances that were investigated by myself of the worst crimes:

The Feldstein family was one of the most respectable in Kishineff. The mob attacked their saloon at noon on Sunday, April 9. The police barracks are 300 yards away. The soldiers and police patrolled the street during five hours of the day. While that section of the mob demolished the premises the leader of the mob found in the kitchen the meat for the family's dinner. He put it on a stick, mounted to the roof of the saloon, which is of one story, and, addressing the mob, the police and the military in the street, declared, "Here are the remains of a Christian child found in the house of the wealthy Jew Feldstein." The family was saved by a Russian employee of Feldstein and a humane gendarme from the fury of the mob.

At 13 Asia street, in the Bender Rogatka quarter, some of the worst outrages were perpetrated. Twelve families, all Jewish artisans, lived in the yard. A mob of Moldavians, some Russian workmen and a few Albanians attacked them. The majority of the Jewish men escaped, while the women and girls, numbering sixteen, concealed themselves in a loft under the roof of a one story house. Four Jewish men tried to defend the place from the murderers of their wives and daughters, and these facts are related to me:

One Mottel Freenspon, a glazier, was stunned by a blow from a bludgeon, and the Albanians mutilated him while still alive. They then choked a child two years old and cut out its tongue while alive. The other three men were killed and then had feathers put on their faces and fired. The mob then found its way to the loft where the Jewish women were concealed and continued their work of slaughter.

The scene of the most diabolical crimes and violations committed by the mob was the Sklanska Rogatka suburb, 80 per cent of the population of which are Moldavians, the Jews forming the remainder. The mob broke into the yard on the evening of the second day, Monday, April 10. Twenty-five persons, mostly women and children, hid themselves in a shed. The houses in the yard were demolished, and the mob was going away when the cry of a child in the shed indicated the place of concealment of the women. The shed was instantly attacked by Moldavians, led by a father and son, who were neighbors of the Jews. Grallspon, the owner of the shed, was killed, together with four other artisans, who were defending the place, and one woman, the wife of the owner, was murdered after violation. The mob also found a pretty girl named Jeya Wouler, aged thirteen, and her fate is so awful that I can only state that when the girl had actually been torn in two a dozen Moldavians fought for her body like famished wolves after life was extinct. Death was more merciful than the fiends who did this devilish deed of unspeakable infamy.

Many police officers did their duty and saved many lives in the Jewish districts. Among these was Officer Sloutschevsky of Bender Rogatka, who, with twelve men, drove the mob away. They went then to Asia street, where Officer Assofsky was patrolling, and he allowed them to commit the murders described. Many artillery officers humanely saved several Jewish women.

During the progress of the first day's outrages the bishop of Kishineff while on his way to a dinner with a rich noble passed in his carriage through the mob, giving his blessing to the crowd. Upon hearing this I refused to believe it possible and resolved to interview the nobleman, who is Michael Micolavitch Kroupansky. He received me courteously and said:

"Bishops in Russia always give their blessing to people when passing through the streets. This instance was an accidental coincidence. The bishop is a humane man."

So that the fact remains that the bishop did pass through the mob on his way to dinner and uttered no word to persuade the mob to stop its murder and pillage.

The military measures to preserve order were adequate when I left Kishineff, but if these are relaxed no protection remains for the terrorized men, women and children against further violence. The Journal edited by Kroushvan is still circulating and, while more restrained, is keeping alive the racial animosity against the defenseless Jews. I would urge the following measures to afford them some protection:

First, that the government at St. Petersburg issue a ukase declaring there is no truth in the horrible fiction of Jewish ritual murders of Christian children; second, that the bishops and clergymen of all towns and villages be compelled to read the same from their pulpits, thereby stopping the circulation of these atrocious legends within the borders of Russia, and, third, that a conference of the leading Jews of western Europe be held without delay to consider the best means to solve the problem of the Russian Jew and how best to help the Jews of the pale to protect themselves under the existing Russian laws.

Unless some action of this nature is taken soon more outrages will follow. I found the feeling in the larger cities, where the Jews are strong, very excited and apprehensive. In one city the Jews have purchased 9,000 revolvers to protect themselves.

Her Mailed Knight.

Pensively the fair girl gazed from the window.

"Alas," she said—"alas, he cometh not!"

Long she watched and long she waited, but the postman went on his rounds and never stopped.

"My mailed knight," she murmured, "must have been delayed in transmission."

For she had sent postage money to the matrimonial agency and was somewhat disheartened at not receiving a reply.

FATALLY HURT

Street Car Collides With One Of Pawnee Bill's Show Wagons Early Wednesday Morning--One Walter Franklin Was Injured Internally.

Walter Franklin, a hostler in Pawnee Bill's Wild West show, was seriously injured about 12:15 Wednesday morning, on West Church street, between Eighth street and Flory avenue.

Franklin was sitting with the driver, on top of a chain and stake wagon, which had left the show ground and was going to the show train. The wagon was a high one and heavily loaded, and as the trees in front of G. C. Stunt's residence, on the south side of the street car tracks, were too low to allow the wagon to pass under, the driver pulled his horses across the tracks. Street car No. 35 west bound, in charge of Conductor William Moore, Motorman Shafer, came along at this time, and collided with the wagon in front of the residence of Attorney Charles W. Miller. The force of the collision knocked Franklin off the wagon to the pavement, and both horses were knocked down, one of them falling on the prostrate hostler. The driver, having hold of the lines, had himself securely braced and was not thrown from his seat.

Franklin was found in an unconscious condition and was picked up and laid on a pile of straw that was placed in the street car. Dr. C. F. Legge was called and did what he could for the injured man, who was later removed to the City Hospital in Bowers & Bradley's ambulance, Dr. D. M. Smith and Dr. R. W. De Crow accompanying him.

ROUGH HOUSE

STARTED BY SOLDIERS AT THE SHOW GROUND.

One of the Boys in Blue Was Knocked Down—Finally Sent Out to Camp Ground.

Three soldiers from the camp ground nearly created a riot at the show ground Tuesday night, after the evening performance, and for a time it looked as if serious trouble might follow their actions.

One of the trio was badly under the influence of liquor, and, with his companions attempted to go into the side show without paying admission. They were prevented, and after some parley went to the outside gate. Here they stood until the show was out, and as several of the women who were connected with it, passed they are said to have made insulting remarks. One of the women returned and told the manager, who came to the gate and ordered the men away, or at least to stop their abusive talk. The manager looked to be in for a beating at the hands of the soldiers, but making a move as if to draw a pistol, they were intimidated and withdrew breathing threatenings and slaughters.

Soon about 50 of the canvass men, stake drivers and laborers with the show came upon the scene, and one of the soldiers was promptly knocked down, and the trio were about to be roughly handled.

Policemen Bell and Hager rescued them from their position and they were sent to the camp ground.

"Reputation" Sold.

Recently it has been an easy matter for physicians who lacked a reputation to purchase a "reputation," and the Christian Hospital in Chicago was said to be one of the institutions that made a business in selling "reputations" to physicians. A dispatch from Chicago says that the Christian Hospital has been enjoined from advertising Dr. John B. Murphy as president of its staff. All the principal directors of the institution have been arrested charged with fraudulent use of the mails and the Federal grand jury will investigate these charges. The plan as set forth in the "hospital" literature, was to dispose of "membership" on the staff of the hospital. For $25, the minimum fee, the applicant received a "beautifully engrossed certificate, which imparts confidence to patients," while for other sums the institution retained "official buttons" and other insignia intended to impress the credulous.

The man was injured about the head, but it is not thought the skull is fractured. The most serious injuries are internal in their nature, as the unfortunate fellow has been vomiting blood since being taken to the hospital.

There were several passengers on the car, but none of them were injured, as the car was not going at a high rate of speed when the collision occurred. After passing Eighth street the conductor rang for a stop at Flory avenue to let off Mr. A. P. Teuscher, and it met the wagon not more than fifty feet east of the stopping post. The brake was set hard, and Motorman Shafer did all in his power to stop his car. Had there been no stop at Flory avenue, and had the car been running down Church at this point at the usual rate of speed, the results would have been similar to a railroad head-on collision. The 35 is one of the long open motors, and the heavily loaded wagon had as much weight as the car, in much more compact form. Had the car been going at a high rate of speed the wagon would have telescoped it, and all on board would have been hurt. As it was the front end was slightly crushed in, while the wagon was comparatively uninjured. One of the horses when he fell became wedged under the running board of the car and was released with difficulty, but neither was seriously injured.

Franklin's home is in Danville, Ill.

EXCURSION TO IDLEWILDE PARK THIS SEASON.

Three Hundred Members of the Plymouth Church of Columbus Arrived Wednesday.

The largest excursion of the season thus far to be run to Idlewild Park, was that of today, when over three hundred members of the Plymouth Congregational church and Sunday school of Columbus, arrived at that famous resort, coming in over the Buckeye line in five large cars. The excursionists were in charge of Mr. J. B. White chairman of the outing committee of the church. The visitors have been spending the day most happily, engaging in all kinds of games, etc., and in admiring the works of the ancient mound builders. Among the notable events of the afternoon were two ball games, one between the Emile Stais and McLaughlin Stars and the other between the small boys of the Sunday school and the married men of the church. At noon a big dinner was enjoyed by all, there being one general spread.

This evening between six and seven o'clock Rev. E. Lee Howard will address the people on Eagle mound. It has been a great day with the excursionists, who have been in ecstasies over the beauty and many attractions of Idlewild Park.

SCARED BY SEA GHOSTS.

Phosphorescent Glow Caused Herd of Cattle to Stampede and Drown.

In Matthews county, Va., the high winds recently whipped the waves of Chesapeake bay into a fury, and, being accompanied by a high tide, much of the marsh ground was submerged, says a special dispatch from Richmond, Va., to the New York World. At this season of the year herds of cattle are turned out to graze on the luscious growth of the marshes.

The high water was accompanied by a phosphorescent glow, and the flashing of the waves frightened the herd on the marsh so that it was stampeded. Many of the cattle rushed into the waters of the bay, and swimming straight out until exhausted, they were drowned.

Your Health Depends on Your Kidneys

Every Reader Should Test the Wonderful Merits of this Great New Discovery

IRVING'S BUCHU WAFERS

If you wish to be rich in health, you should be careful of your KIDNEYS as a good financier is of his cash capital. Your KIDNEYS are your capital. Your health depends principally on them. If you keep THEM well you may possess your health in safety. Now by this is meant that good financing for your health is to overlook all the other organs and merely look after your KIDNEYS. Your other organs may need care, but your KIDNEYS most because they do most. If you are sick begin with your KIDNEYS, because just as soon as they are well, they will help all the other organs to health.

For a great many years it has been the custom for people to say, "My Blood is out of order, it needs purifying, I feel all used up, my skin needs clearing, my Brain feels tired." They are right, but do they act right? They generally go and get a laxative to purify their blood; but does blood run through the bowels?

Science proves that all the purifying that your blood needs, in fact all that can be done, must be done by your KIDNEYS. The KIDNEYS are filters. They strain and purify your blood. When your blood is impure nothing can purify but your KIDNEYS. When the KIDNEYS are clogged from overwork of any kind, worry, exposure or excesses, they can be set right by that wonderful new remedy known as IRVING'S BUCHU WAFERS. They are a small wafer and pleasant to take. They are not a patent medicine or secret remedy, and the formula is cheerfully furnished to the numerous physicians who prescribe them in their practice, recognizing the efficiency of their ingredients, such as Buchu, Juniper Berries, Asparagus, and other valuable and purely vegetable extracts, which are so concentrated as to make them more than double their value.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by a heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmor's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the night, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both Home of Swamp-Root, sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmor & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. ## WOMAN WANTS TO UPLIFT SIOUX INDIAN

Major Lilly With Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show Tells An Interesting Story to the Advocate—A White Dog Feast—Squaw Drank Blood.

Dropping into Major Gordon Lilly's private wigwam Tuesday afternoon at Pawnee Bill's show ground the Advocate learned a singularly interesting story into which are woven the sentiments of a young English woman and the peculiarly fascinating charms of a young Indian brave, decidedly savage in instincts despite his educational advantages.

During the Christmas holidays when Buffalo Bill was giving performances in London, he was called upon by Miss Edith Marsden, a lady of position and wealth, who solicited Colonel Cody's influence in having one John Hollow Horn Bear sent to school. He was attracting considerable attention not alone for his feats of horsemanship, but principally because of his fine and intelligent appearance, and was put forward as a typical Brul Indian of the Sioux tribe. The Colonel, understanding human nature thoroughly, politely told the young woman that her hopes of uplifting the Indian, through this particular redskin, at least, were impracticable.

It appears that the affairs of the Indian in this country demanded his return and after their adjustment he immediately went into the show life again, this time with Major Gordon Lilly, then opening at Carnegie, Pa.

"That the Indian will at all times live up to the traditions of his race is a well known fact to everyone," said Major Lilly, "but a startling evidence of this was recently demonstrated while we were in Defiance, O. The other evening in compliance with the wishes of an old Indian chief, a former enemy of the Brul tribe of the Sioux, a 'white dog feast' was held to commemorate his peace prayer. On such an occasion it is customary to kill and roast a small white dog, placing the liver aside together with the blood for separate religious rites performed at the conclusion, just before smoking the pipe of peace.

"The youngest Indian brave of the tribe accepting an enemy's submission becomes on the festival of the white dog, the principal medicine man and presides over the incantations generally and to whom in particular it becomes the obligation to eat the specially prepared roasted liver of the sacrifice, while the oldest squaw partakes freely of the blood of the animal.

"This feast was fittingly celebrated on this particular occasion by none other than the greatly admired John Hollow Horn Bear by whose education it was believed by the benevolent English lady the uplifting of the whole Sioux tribe might be accomplished. As a matter of fact, John Hollow Horn Bear had a year's course at Carlisle school, but evidently his innate qualities were not much refined by the course. At least his natural propensities were not wholly subdued.

"The remarkable feature of this affair," said Major Lilly, "is that despite Colonel Cody's sound advice, this beautiful young English lady persists in her belief that John Hollow Horn Bear, if fully trained into civilization's usages, would in due time become a benefactor of his people, for only Monday in Wooster, O., when I was about to prepare for the evening performance," continued Major Lilly, "Miss Marsden was announced, whereupon she made known her desire, first of releasing the Indian from any contract with me, then to send him to Carlisle school forthwith. Understanding the case perfectly, I requested the lady to await my answer a few days, which she did most willingly."

Therefore it is that this story comes to light now in the hope that the young woman upon learning of the White Dog feast and the part John Hollow Horn Bear took in it, she will be persuaded to desist in such a fruitless attempt to uplift the Indian through her present protégé. A singularly striking fact is that Miss Marsden has never solicited an interview with the Indian in question, but has been attracted principally from a belief that the true Sioux Indian is typified in this man.

Miss Marsden was thought to be in Newark Tuesday. Investigation shows that she went to Zanesville to receive the Major's answer.

Miss Edith Marsden is a typical English maiden lady, 30 years of age, tall, graceful and a perfect blonde, with the cream and roses complexion characteristic of her people. Nothing daunted Miss Marsden passed through Newark Tuesday en route to Zanesville, where she hopes to receive the Major's reply today.

THE RAILWAYS

THE PASSING OF SIXTY-FIVE OLD ENGINES

New Firemen Being Employed by the Baltimore & Ohio—Local and General News Items.

Passing of 65 Old Engines.

B & O. motive power officials have prepared a list of 65 locomotives to be cut up in the near future. Their condition is such that repairs are not warranted. The condemned power consists of old-time Baldwins, machines, built years ago, some little Grant locomotives and many back-number engines from the company's Newark and Mt. Clare shops. For the most part they were built along in the '70's. The old equipment is being rapidly replaced by new locomotives coming along weekly from the plants of the American Locomotive company. Of these the Richmond and Pittsburg plants are furnishing the majority. With the exception of some Atlantic type locomotives now due to arrive from the Baldwin works at Philadelphia, nearly all of the new machines are of the consolidated type with Bellaire boilers and wide fireboxes. Quite a number of heavy six-wheel switchers also are reaching the various divisions.

Many of the 65 machines to be dismantled were turned out at the Mt. Clare shops at Baltimore. These were among the pioneers of the consolidated type. They were supplied with long extended wagon-top boilers, low in the frames and mounted on low drivers. These locomotives present a rakish appearance compared with the colossal engines of today, but in their time were reckoned by the engineers as the acme of locomotive building. Another type includes several odd-looking six-wheel switchers. These were provided with straight extended boilers and were eight-wheel connected, no trucks being used. In their day they were dubbed "Jerseys" and latterly "whangs." Several ten-wheelers, built years ago at the Pittsburg locomotive works, must get off the tracks for the newer types.—Pittsburg Post.

Improving the Narrow Gauge. Steps toward improving the station and telegraphic facilities of the narrow gauge branch of the Butler division.

sion of the B. & O. railroad are being taken by officials in charge of that work. W. H. Williams, assistant to General Manager C. S. Sims, and Charles Selden, superintendent of telegraph of the B. & O. system, and G. W. C. Day, Pittsburg division operator, Monday made a tour of the narrow gauge in company with Superintendent J. A. Spielmann, of the Butler division. The inspection included the narrow gauge line from Foxburg to Mt. Jewett. The officials returned to Foxburg the same evening and yesterday inspected the remainder of the Butler division and the Pittsburg & Western branch of the Pittsburg division. What the inspection will result in remains to be seen but there are prospects for improving the stations and putting in new telegraph equipment wherever warranted.—Pittsburg Post.

MRS. IDA McDONALD,

Supreme Deputy of the Maccabees of the World.

MRS. McDONALD, No. 477 Beaubien Street, Detroit, Mich., is a prominent woman who was greatly benefited by the great woman's medicine, Wine of Cardui. Mrs. McDonald is the supreme deputy of the Maccabees of the World, and one of the most widely known women in the United States. Thousands of women gather to hear her lecture everywhere she goes. The great work she has done for the Maccabees is appreciated by every member of the order. She was so absorbed in her work that she neglected to give her health proper care—failed to take warning that the symptoms of approaching kidney trouble gave her, the sallow complexion and torpid liver. But Wine of Cardui cured her the same as it has cured thousands of others and Mrs. McDonald has written this letter in order that other suffering women may secure from Wine of Cardui the same relief she got from it.

"For four years I suffered with torpid liver until my skin looked yellow and dull. I then found my kidneys were affected and had severe pains across my back, and I felt that I must do something to regain my health. A friend advocated your Wine of Cardui treatment so strongly that I decided to try it, although I had little faith in patent medicines. I am now very thankful that I did so, for within ten days blessed relief came to me, and in less than three months I was cured, and have enjoyed fine health ever since. I know there is nothing better for a sick woman who wishes to enjoy perfect health and am very pleased to give my hearty endorsement."

No suffering woman can afford to ignore such a letter as Mrs. McDonald writes. Her plans and advice have proved valuable in building up one of the greatest women's organizations in the United States and she takes time to give advice which she knows will help you.

Do not delay in securing this medicine. There is nothing to gain and everything to lose by delay. The choice is before you. Will or will you not secure relief now by taking Wine of Cardui? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui as well as 25c packages of Theodor's Black-Draught.

REXALL

REPORT OF PRIVATE ARROWHEAD.

"In the suburbs I have seen men running for the trains and cars every morning. They have swallowed their breakfasts rapidly and then dashed for the cars. The result is fermentive dyspepsia. They are troubled with palpitation, gases on the stomach and raise sour liquid in the mouth; after meals they have pains in the chest, a lumpy feeling in the throat.

"Where dyspepsia and indigestion were once prevalent, now there is great happiness, and in almost every home will be found Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Mr. Frank Hall reports that he never sold a remedy for Indigestion and Dyspepsia that was so universally successful."

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are Warranted to Cure All Forms of Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

Money will be refunded, exactly as printed on package, in case of dissatisfaction. Price, 25 cents, at our store or by mail.

HARVARD'S BIG CHANGES.

Women Barred From the Yard at This Year's Commencement.

There are to be radical changes in Harvard's commencements, beginning with this year, says a Boston special to the New York Evening Journal.

In the first place, women are to be debarred the yard and the alumni are thus to be afforded opportunity to make all the noise and drink all the punch they choose, free from the espionage of wives and mothers who may happen to be members of the W. C. T. U.

Then the distribution of diplomas is to cease. The number of persons entitled to these documents has grown so large that it has been decided to deliver them from several places instead of from the stage of Sander's theater.

Moreover the diplomas themselves are to be very different from the traditional sheepskin, huge in size and not overornamental in contents. A much smaller parchment is now to be the reward of scholarship, and much more art is to be displayed in the getting up.

INDIGESTION

Is the cause of more discomfort than any other ailment. If you eat the things that you want, and that are good for you, you are distressed. Ackers' Dyspepsia Tablets will make your digestion perfect and prevent Dyspepsia and its attendant disagreeable symptoms. You can safely eat anything at any time, if you take one of these tablets afterward. Sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee. 25 cents. Money refunded if you are not satisfied. His Greeting. He was extremely bashful and very much in love, and the combination made his life miserable.

One evening he called and found the whole family, with the great exception of herself, assembled in the library.

Rising hastily, he exclaimed more cordially than gracefully, "Ah, at last here comes the missing link."

The Secret Revealed.

This is the way the sweet things score one another:

"How many seasons has Edith been out? She says only two."

"Nonsense. She's the only girl in our set with her ears pierced, and she spells her name with an i instead of with a y. Those are both dead giveaways that she's a back number."

Summer's Interpreter.

Deep in the fragrant woods I heard
The summer sing to me,
And all the grove's green heart was stirred
With haunting melody.

So near she seemed I almost thought
To see her face and press
The lyric lips whose singing brought
The hour such happiness.

With joy the branches lightly shook
Their leaves to hear her voice;
Her music echoed in the brook
And made the grass rejoice.

It thrilled the golden air around;
Its rapture moved the bee;
Whose hum is heard turned into sound
High in their honey trees.

But not until there fell a hush
Did I the secret know;
'Twas my interpreter, the thrush,
That sang for summer so.

Across the world a liquid note
Most exquisite and clear,
All summer in the thrush's throat.
The sweetness of the year!

SOAP FOR THE HEATHEN.
Baptist Worker Wants Tons of it and Will Pay the Freight.

According to statements made to delegates to the Baptist American Missionary union recently in convention at Buffalo, soap is the crying need of the Chin Hills district of Burma.

"We need soap," said the Rev. E. H. East, a medical missionary of this district. "We can use tons of it. The people are disease ridden mainly because they never wash. I have washed the naked children and the hands and faces of the women. The women were astonished when they saw their children and themselves had pale complexions after washing. If some one will donate several tons of soap and the union will not pay the freight I will pay it myself. We need soap more than anything else."

A New Disease.
A peculiar disease that resembles grip is epidemic at Riverhead, N. Y., says the New York Herald. It made its appearance a few weeks ago, and since then there have been more than a hundred cases reported. One of those who recently recovered from the malady, in describing its effects, said: "It is something like seasickness. The first day you're afraid you'll die; the second day you're afraid you won't; the third day you feel a little better, and the fourth day you begin to take an interest in your meals."

Large Game Preserve.
Senator Spooner of Wisconsin has bought on private terms the great Blanchard estate, which includes practically the whole town of Pittsburg, the most northern town of New Hampshire, which, it is understood, he will turn into a game preserve. Much of the property is in its natural state and is ideally located for preserve purposes, and added value comes from its inaccessibility, practically absolute privacy being there assured.

Clerks Must Be Neat.
"Speak softly over the telephone and wear your coat in the office."
"Shave at least every other day."
"A man who dresses neatly is a neat worker."

These are rules adopted by the leading business men of Chicago, says the New York World. The edict of the board of trade, which in effect is against men in the building and on 'change appearing in their shirt sleeves, has proved effective.

Cartersville, Ga., R. R. No. 2.
I suffered for a number of years with a severe skin rash. About twelve years ago I started using S. S. S., and after taking three bottles I felt myself cured and have since taken a bottle occasionally, and had little or no trouble along that line. My general health has been better since. I recommend S. S. S. as a good blood medicine and all round tonic. Yours truly,
Mrs. M. I. PITTARD.

Some two years ago I suffered a great deal, caused on account of bad blood. Small rash or pimples broke out over my body and kept getting worse day by day for over a year. Seeing S. S. S. advertised in the papers and having heard also it had cured several people in this city, concluded to give it a fair trial. After using the medicine for some time, taking in all six bottles, I was entirely cured.

"THY KINGDOM COME."

(Dedicated to the Workers for Industrial Peace.)

Fight on, ye warriors for the living dead
Time will consecrate each deed.
Sleep not Oh Martyr to your country's need

Rest is only sweet when strife has fled.
Work on ye spongers for a Brother's good,
Press to the front and draw the fire,
Fight on and for industrial peace aspire

Not savage state but lasting Brotherhood.
Live on, Noble Savior and hasten Peace

Rest is not for thee till slavery is o'er
Freedom hath its price no less than war
When all is well thou can't honor thy release.

Shall Greed forever "Slope the Brow?"
No; Crush the force that hath the power to dam
Evolve the "Brother of the Ox" to estate of man

Be not content with future Peace, demand it now.
God's promised land must soon appear,
Know ye this, ye saints, who led the fight
That Love's union of the race is right?

Have more faith in man and less of coward's fear.
Crave more of the "Spirit of the Hive"

He lives best who lives most for fellow man.
This is the eternal law in Nature's plan,
Work for Brotherhood on earth, not in the skies.

DEATH

Of Mrs. Sadie Shelley, Former Newark Woman, Occurs in Cincinnati.
Remains Brought Here.

Word was received in Newark on Tuesday of the death of Mrs. Sadie Shelley at her home in Cincinnati. Mrs. Shelley resided in Newark until ten years ago when she went to Cincinnati with her husband and children. She was a sister of Fred Paxton of Western avenue, and of Mrs. Amos Jones, east of Newark. Death was due to rheumatism of the heart.

The remains were brought to Newark at noon Wednesday and were taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Paxton. The funeral services will be held at the Bowling Green church on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock and the interment will occur at Bowling Green cemetery.

Mrs. Shelley was thirty-eight years of age at the time of her death. She joined the Methodist church early in life, and was a member of the Second M. E. church while in Newark. Besides her husband she leaves four children, a son and three daughters.

Dark Hair We mean all that rich, dark color your hair used to have. If it's gray now, no matter; for Ayer's Hair Vigor always restores color to gray hair. And often it makes the hair grow very heavy.

OUTING

FOR POOR MOTHERS AND THEIR CHILDREN

The Salvation Army Arranging to Entertain at Least 200 at the Park on July 15.

Captain and Mrs. Runcie of the Salvation Army, are just beginning to arrange for a free outing for 200 mothers and their children. The date fixed is July 15, and the place chosen is Idlewild park.

The party will be provided with plenty of good, wholesome food, and no pains will be spared to make the children happy with plenty of games, etc.

Captain Runcie, 361 Clinton street, appeals to the Salvation Army's friends and supporters to contribute what they can as considerable money will be needed to provide the refreshments and entertainment for the poor mothers and their little children.

Many boys and girls and destitute people of Newark have never had the pleasure of a day's outing at Idlewild but an opportunity is to be presented to let them all have one big outing with plenty of fun and plenty to eat.

The project deserves hearty support. Captain Runcie will put a kettle on the public square and into this it is hoped many nickels, dimes, quarters and dollars will be dropped. The money will not be wasted. Give freely and help to make others who are less fortunate than you are, happy.

NEW LAWYERS

Two Licking County Boys are Among Those Who Passed the State Bar Examination.

Columbus, O., June 10--The State Bar Examining Committee announces that 236 of the 275 applicants had passed the examinations held last week. All are now full-fledged attorneys. Only one woman, Eleanor V. Reagan, of Napoleon, Ohio, was admitted. Harry Tracy Duncan of Cleveland, received the highest percentage. An examination of the list shows that among the applicants was an unusually large number of sons of attorneys who are to follow in their father's footsteps. Among the lawyers are Charles W. Montgomery of Newark, Boyd Doty of Mt. Vernon, D. B. Grubb of Mt. Vernon, Abbe J. Jones of Zanesville, Roderick Jones of Granville, R. B. McDermott of Coshocton, Neil Starkey of Zanesville, and Lonnie E. Bridgeman of Syracuse. Mr. Bridgeman was graduated from Denison university in 1892 and is well known in Granville and Newark.

It is said that the Victoria Falls on the Zambesi, which are to be used to develop electrical energy, have an estimated horse power of 35,000,000 as compared with Niagara's 7,500,000.

Often a person puts off taking needed tonic because of the disagreeable taste of most tonic preparations. Therefore, the ideal tonic should be pleasant to the palate. Walther's Peptonized Port may justly claim the title of the ideal tonic, for in addition to being highly agreeable to the taste, it is a strengthener of greatest value, combining port wine, itself a tonic of noted efficacy, with pepsin, which is nature's own digestive agent.

This preparation restores lost vitality and cures nervous prostration, indigestion and all kindred ailments. For sale by all druggists.
